Heraldry of the 2013 JOINT DAKOTA ENCAMPMENT LOGO

The 2013 Joint Dakota Encampment was held 12-21 July 2013 at Camp Rapid, the main Army National Guard installation in South Dakota, located near Rapid City.

Joint Dakota Encampments alternate between Camp Rapid, SD in odd numbered years and Camp Grafton, ND in even numbered years.

The five-color logo for the 2013 Joint Dakota Encampment is in the traditional shape of a shield with a scroll at the bottom. The logo is outlined in yellow. The field is divided horizontally with the top half in blue and the bottom half in red. The central emblem is a black, double-headed eagle signifying the duality of the encampment. In the upper left of the blue field is ND in black. In the lower right of the red field is SD in white. The field of the scroll is white and bears "JDCLE – JDESE" in blue which stands for Joint Dakota Cadet Leadership Encampment – Joint Dakota Emergency Services Encampment, the training themes emphasized at this encampment. Customarily, each flight at an encampment wears a different color t-shirt. The example shown below is on a white t-shirt.

It is not currently known who designed the logo. CAP Lt. Col. Randy Borton, the Encampment Commander, was most likely the official who approved the logo for wear.
