Heraldry of the 2016 JOINT DAKOTA ENCAMPMENT LOGO

The 2016 Joint Dakota Encampment was held 25 June - 2 July 2016 at Camp Grafton, the main Army National Guard installation located near Devils Lake in North Dakota.

The annual Civil Air Patrol Joint Dakota Encampment alternates between Camp Grafton, ND in even numbered years and Camp Rapid, SD in odd numbered years.

The multicolor logo for the 2016 Joint Dakota Encampment is in the traditional shape of a shield with a scroll at the bottom. The logo is outlined in yellow. The field is divided diagonally with the left portion in blue and the right portion in red. In the blue field is depicted the shoulder patch of the North Dakota Wing. In the red field is depicted the South Dakota Wing shoulder patch. The field of the scroll is white and bears "JDCLE 2016" in blue which stands for Joint Dakota Cadet Leadership Encampment and the year. The theme of this encampment emphasized teaching cadets the skills and techniques of leadership. This year all of the participants wore a black t-shirt with the logo on the left front.

It is not currently known who designed the logo. North Dakota Wing Commander Col. Bill Kay approved the logo for wear.

The version at left was used on the t-shirts. The version at right was used on the encampment Facebook page.
